

Allspring Global Investments and Roberts & Ryan Partner to Launch Money Market Fund Share Class

Charlotte, N.C., October 23, 2023 — Allspring Global Investments (Allspring), a global asset management firm with $551 billion* in assets under advisement, today announced the launch of the Roberts & Ryan share class on all three of Allspring's Government and Treasury Money Market Funds. These share classes are offered exclusively to Roberts & Ryan clients.

Roberts & Ryan, America's first service-disabled veteran-owned broker-dealer, specializes in underwriting and executing debt and equity capital markets transactions for corporate treasuries, as well as secondary fixed income and equity trading. Through its social mission, the firm donates a portion of its top-line revenue to world-class nonprofits and foundations that focus on supporting veterans in general wellness, mental health, and career transition through partner nonprofits.

"We're excited to provide cash management solutions to Roberts & Ryan's clients," shared Andrew Owen, president of Allspring Funds. "We are proud to work with an organization committed to supporting the veteran community."

"Roberts & Ryan is honored to partner with Allspring and its leading Money Market Funds' team. This addition to our suite of services provides our institutional customers with a way to manage their liquidity and generate competitive returns while also having a positive impact on the veteran community, which has provided all of us the freedoms we enjoy every day," said Ed D'Alessandro, Roberts & Ryan CEO and Navy vet.
